

Christa Smith Bio 2016:

Whether speaking nationally or internationally, Christa's passion for the Lord pours out of her. Christa delivers what she hears from the Holy Spirit with humor, accuracy and powerful personal experiences. Because of her deep love for the presence of God, everything about her ministry is rooted in hosting His presence. Christa's background includes graduating from Seattle Pacific University with a degree in Communication. She then went on to Hillsong International Leadership College in Sydney, Australia where she completed the Pastoral Ministry Program. She has planted and been Director of two Schools of Ministry; one in the San Francisco Bay area and the other in Las Vegas, Nevada. Christa has also served as Associate Pastor at Garden Valley Church in Roseburg, Oregon, then Executive Pastor at Expression 58 in Glendale, California. Christa currently resides in the San Francisco Bay area and travels full time with her husband, Sean, ministering together throughout America & beyond.
