

Since the age of 16, Jordan Gonzales has been involved in ministry alongside his older brothers, where they witnessed signs, wonders, and miracles. He is a graduate of Innovation School of Transformation, where he then went on to become the third year director of the school. Jordan is an excellent communicator and inspires people with his creative teaching style. He is passionate about training people to hear the voice of God and to see people come into their full identity in Christ. He walks in a strong prophetic gifting and longs to see a generation encounter Jesus. He currently resides in San Ramon, Ca where he is a part of Sean Smith Ministries.
